

CRISIS PR AND ISSUES MANAGEMENT

Protecting your reputation at times of uncertainty and change.

WELCOME TO ALDER. YOUR FIRST LINE OF DEFENCE.

An unexpected crisis can be a testing time for individuals and organisations. The communication demands are intense, and decision-making has to take place at high speed and under great scrutiny.

Alder specialises in supporting clients at such times, with a combination of PR support, strategic counsel, and stakeholder management advice. With many years' experience, and working with the country's leading lawyers, we advise on how to handle a whole range of issues that can arise from a sudden incident or legal dispute.

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

We give practical and strategic advice to support your people and protect your reputation at times of uncertainty or change. We advise on a wide range of issues, including:

ARRESTS AND CRIMINAL TRIALS

Communicating with stakeholders at such times is particularly delicate: there is a strong demand for information but you are severely restricted in what you can say.

INDUSTRIAL ACCIDENTS

At a time of heightened emotions, getting stakeholder communications right is an essential task that builds trust and has a significant effect on the way the matter is reported.

CIVIL LITIGATION

Civil litigation is often newsworthy, and no-one wants to win the battle but lose the public relations war. Our advice helps clients find their public voice without creating any hostages to fortune.

INQUESTS AND TRIBUNALS

Facing formal proceedings can be daunting, but thorough preparation will minimise the stress and help you handle all the communication demands that arise at such times.

REGULATORY FAILINGS

No-one wants to have to communicate about shortcomings, but with the right touch it is possible to reassure stakeholders and even build confidence.

PUBLIC INQUIRIES

Giving evidence to a public inquiry can be extremely demanding, both emotionally and in terms of the practicalities. Our consultants have first-hand experience of public inquiries, both as witnesses and advisers to clients.

Experience:
what makes us different.
